

Please do not weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy laws by considering the "established business relationship" exemption requested by the CBA (Consumer Bankers Association). It is so nice to no longer receive annoying phone calls everyday - I would like to continue to enjoy my family and friends without being interrupted by these annoying calls.